

NEW ART PROJECT

imagination.1

Friday, February 17, 2023 to Thursday, March 23, 2023

"The group exhibition "Imagination. 1" presents the work of four contemporary artists Julia Stärz, Petra Schott, Nico Hensel and Parth, each with a unique approach to using color in their work.

Nico uses digital photography to compose figures, creating abstract compositions that explore the relationship between color and form. Petra paints on canvas with neutral and minimal colors, showing a more minimalist approach to the use of color. Julia paints on canvas with uniform colors, hinting at the texture and minimalism, while Parth paints on paper and canvas with sharp and explosive colors, showing a bold approach to the use of color.

The artists show the versatility and strength of color as a means of expressing emotions and sensations. The work of each artist is a unique expression of their relationship with color and figure, creating a rich and varied visual experience. Whether through minimal and neutral tones, uniform and hinted textures, or bold and explosive colors."
